FURTHER INFORMATION

info@narrativepractices.com.au

Maggie Carey has been teaching Narrative Therapy in many contexts over the past 20 years and she has a wide experience in ways of engaging trainees and workshop participants in developing their skills in using a Narrative Approach.

Fours days of training and reflection in the beautiful setting of Ubud, Bali.

Suitable for anyone interested in teaching or supervising others in using a Narrative Approach.

An opportunity to explore a Narrative Pedagogy in which the principles and the practice of Narrative Therapy are employed in training.

This workshop will be a chance for teachers and supervisors to reflect on their own practice and to be energised and extended in their approach to teaching and supervision.

Maggie will offer a range of practice exercises, examples and interviews as a basis for discussion

Narrative Practices Adelaide is a small, vibrant centre committed to a collaborative approach to practicing and teaching narrative therapy. It's directors are Maggie Carey, Shona Russell and Rob Hall.

Maggie, Shona and Rob have been involved in the teaching of narrative therapy and community work for many years, both in Australia and internationally.

NPA has its history based in the Adelaide Narrative Therapy Centre, which was established by Michael White in January 2008, a few months before his sad and untimely death.

From its inception Maggie, Rob and Shona joined Michael in the formation and early development of ANTC, and after his death they formed Narrative Practices Adelaide to continue this work.
